FEDERAL ADMISSION OF "GOING TOO FAR" ON TIDELANDS SEEN

SENATOR TELLS PANEL GOVERNMENT OFFERS PARTIAL QUIT-CLAIM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) said today the federal government is about to admit it "has gone all too far" in claiming ownership of land under coastal waters.

McCarran asked Dion R. Holm, counsel of the San Francisco public commission, whether he would support a bill to relinquish any government claim on lands under inland waters.

Holm said such a bill would satisfy San Francisco, but that he could not support it because "a principle is involved" and that it would not be fair to the states.

"Gone Too Far."

McCarran said he has learned that the administration will offer a bill to give up any federal claim to ownership of land under bays, harbors and inland waters.

Such a measure would be "an admission on the part of the government that this has gone all too far" and would constitute "an effort to stymie" action by congress, he added.

The exchange came at a congressional hearing on a bill which would give the states clear cut ownership of the land and its resources under their coastal waters.

Holm urged that it be enacted.

Title "Cloud" Seen.

He said there is "some cloud" over the title of much of the land on which San Francisco is built because of last year's supreme court decision holding that California does not own the land under its coastal waters.

This is true because much of the city is built on land which was once tideland but has been reclaimed, Holm said.

Holm said that while the government has made no claim to the land under San Francisco Bay, such a claim might logically follow the supreme court decision.

50 Officials Waiting.

Nearly 50 state officials are waiting for a chance to tell why they favor the bill to give the states title to the tidelands.

Waler R. Johnson, attorney general of Nebraska, who is directing the testimony of state officials, said he has been besieged with requests for priority by men who wan to return home.

Senator Moore (R-Okla), presiding over the joint senate and house judiciary subcommittees,

Arkansan Given Life For Slaying 'Mail Order Bride'

CLINTON, Ark., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Lonnie A. Robbins, described by the state as a "dashing Romeo," has been convicted of murder in the poison death of his Texas "mail order" bride. His sentence was set at life imprisonment.

A jury composed mostly of farmers in this North Arkansas rural county returnned a verdict yesterday after deliberating four hours in a tourist court. The trial lasted three days.

The portly, 49-year-old farmer received the verdict with composure. His attorneys did not say immediately whether they would appeal, but indicated they would.

After the verdict, Robbins was removed to the Faulkner county jail at Conway—for "safe-keeping," Sheriff Jack Castleberry of Conway said. He will be returned here for formal sentencing Friday.

Death Asked.

The state had sought the death penalty. The defense didn't deny that Robbins' bride of a week, the former Mrs. Sadie Sue Dudley, Abilene, Tex., died of poisoning, but contended it was self-administered. Robbins didn't testify.

The Robbins' were married on Christmas Day at Abilene and came to Robbins' home at nearby Scotland, Ark., on New Year's Eve. She died a few hours later.

Testimony was introduced that Mrs. Robbins withdrew $1,800 from her postal savings account before coming to Arkansas. Five hundred dollars was found on Robbins after his arrest with a woman who said she thought they were to be married.

Torture-Slayer Of Ex-Sailor Sought

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—(AP)—A 13-state alarm was broadcast today for a suspect in the strange and baffling Chinese torture knot slaying of a former navy officer in a mid-Manhattan hotel.

The victim, Harvey Haeberle, a civilian employe of the navy's photographic division, was found strangled in his ransacked hotel room early yesterday.

Clad only in shorts, the victim's hands were tied by strips of bed clothing which were also fastened to his throat. The fiendish device was arranged to choke Haeberle to death as he struggled to free himself. Detectives said the method used to kill Haberle is one that has been employed for centuries by the Chinese to torture victims to death.

Lynch Ban Is Delayed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Southern Democrats ,aided by a rule technicality, blocked house judiciary committee action today on anti-lynching legislation.

But they still faced prospective defeat in the committee tomorrow on this issue which is backed by both President Truman and the Republican majority.

The bill, which would let the Federal government step in and prosecute anyone who takes part in a lynching, was approved yesterday 3 to 2 by a judiciary subcommittee. It was scheduled to get action today by the full committee, with approval virtually certain.

But the committee was still deliberating when the house met at 10 a. m. (CST) Southern members cited a rule against committee session while the house is sitting. So Chairman Michener (R-Mich) adjourned the committee meeting until tomorrow.

When the committee does get around to voting, approval of the measure appears certain. Republicans hold a 13-12 edge in the committee and only four of the Democrats are party rebels against Mr. Truman's program of "civil rights" legislation.

The legislation would make it a federal crime to take part in or encourage a lynching. The maximum penalty on conviction would be ten years in prison and a $20,000 fine.

Penalty For Officer.

Peace officers found guilty of negligence in allowing a prisoner or suspect to be lynched could be fined $5,000 and imprisoned five years.

Even the community in which a lynching occurred could be penalized through a requirement to pay the victim's dependents up to $10,000.

Southern opposition to the measure was centered around the contention that it invades states' rights. Furthermore Dixie representatives cite a drop in the number of lynchings as evidence that they are eliminating the porblem their own way.

Senate Republican leaders are speeding action on a companion measure.

No Fear Of Big New Dust Storms Seen By U.S.D.A.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—The agriculture department isn't much worried about possibility of bad dust storms in the former "dust bowl" this spring and summer.

But it is fearful that unless there is more than the average amount of moisture, there will be less than a normal yield of wheat this summer.

The agency also is worried about the long range outlook on soil blowing.

These are the views expressed by the department's soil conservation service officials.

Experts Optimistic.

They are commenting on a recent Denver Post story that the Kansas and Nebraska wheat crop is threatened by dust-blowing winds and lack of sufficient moisture.

"We are pretty optimistic about the blowing this year in Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico," one agency official told a reporter, "because it seems to be rather local, covering perhaps a county or two.

"But there was a drought in that

Four Killed In Crash Of B-29 Near Meridian

MERIDIAN, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Four members of a 12-man crew were killed in the crash of a B-29 bomber near here last night.

The eight other crew members, including Col. Alan D. Clark of Fort Worth, 7th Bombardment Wing commander, parachuted through the rain and fog to safety.

One of a flight of 20 B-29s bound for the West Coast, the bomber crashed in flames shortly after taking off from Carswell air base at Fort Worth, Texas. Clark was commander of the flight.

Names of the four victims, who were found in or near the scene of the wreckage, have not been released.

Eight Ball Out.

Besides Clark, the men who bailed out were 1st Lt. Frank H. Riggs, Orange, Texas; 1st Lt. Frank M. Worley, Fort Worth; Capt. William S. Kern, Pasadena, Cal.; Staff Sgt. D. W. Aslin, Fort Worth; Staff Sgt. William W. Weaver, Falmouth, Ky.; Capt. Julian F. Moffat. Barksdale, Miss.; and Lt. Col. Harry E. Goldsworth, Spokane, Wash.

"We were flying on instruments at 10,000 feet in a heavy rain and fog," Clark said.

He said the plane was burning as it fell.

The bomber crashed at 11:30 p. m. near the farm home of Oras Solberg.

Who Should Use 1040 Short-Form Tax Return Explained

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth of 10 stories on who had to do what about his income tax.)

By JAMES MARLOW.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Who can use the 1040 short-form—and how—in filing his 1947 income tax return?

You can use it if your total income, from any source, was under $5,000. (If it was $5,000 or more, you must use the long form.)

That form 1040—a four-page form—can be used as a short or long form.

With the short one you don't figure your tax. You find it in a table on the back. You must figure it when you use the long form.

If you can use Form W-2, the withholding receipt, don't waste time with the 1040 short form.

Can't Use W-2.

It's for people who can't use Form W-2, like landlords or professsional men from whose income little or no tax was withheld in 1947.

Under-$5,000 people will save money by using the long form if their deductible expenses were more than 10 percent of their income.

Everyone using the 1040 short form automatically is allowed 10 percent off for deductible expenses, like medical bills or charitable contributions.

You just get it. You don't have to account for it. It's automatically allowed for in the tax table.

If your deductible expenses were more than 10 percent, you can claim the full amount by using the long form.

Husbands and wives, if their combined income was under $5,000, can file separately or jointly on the short form.

If their combined income was $5,000 or more, but individually less, they can't file jointly on the short form. They can file separately on it, or jointly on the long form.

Using the short form is easy Start at the top and work your way down, answering the questions as you go.

Most people will need only page 1. If you have income from pensions or annuities, you'll use the top of page 2 also.

Examples Given.

Here's an example of how to fill out the short form:

You're married, with one child. Your 1947 income from salary was $4,000. You had other income of $200 from interest and $300 from dividends. Your wife had no income.

Starting from the top, write your name, address, social security number. Then list yourself, wife and child as exemptions, since they were dependent on you.

Then answer the other questions, step by step; your employer's name and address, your $4,000 salary, your $200 from interest, your $300 from dividends. Adding it, your total income was $4,500.

Now turn to the tax table on page 4. Since you had three exemptions, look down the third column, opposite $4,500, your income. You find your tax is

CHAOS IN PALESTINE SEEN UNLESS UNITED NATIONS ACTS FAST

SECRETARY GENERAL OF U. N. URGES SPEED ON IMPORTANT DECISION

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations, said today Palestine will be chaos when the British withdraw unless the U. N. acts quickly.

Lie told his weekly news conference the U. N. becomes fully responsible for Palestine the moment the British leave. The British have said they will give up their Palestine mandate May 15 and withdraw completely by Aug. 1.

Lie refrained from commenting on the Palestine declaration of the United States before the Security Council Tuesday or its implications.

Legal Right Eyed.

He also declined to say whether the U. N. has legal authority to enforce decisions of the general assembly cuch as partitioning of Palestine.

Asked what the effect would be on the U. N. if the 1947 assembly's partition project is not enforced, Lie said:

"If nothing happens, just chaos will be the result in Palestine."

He added that failure of the U. N. to carry out partition would reduce the prestige of the U. N. and lead to a general loss of confidence in its ability to settle world problems.

Lie spoke as the Security Council delegates took a breathing spell on the Palestine problem.

The delay touched off a series of lobby conferences. It also gave delegates an opportunity to get their

Pair Of Sergeants Take B-17 Joyride First Time Flying

BY LUIS NOLI

BALBOA, C. Z., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Apparently it isn't very hard to fly a B-17.

Two American sergeants, accused of taking an unauthorized 1,700-mile joyride in a Flying Fortress across some of the roughest terrain in the world, said today they didn't have much trouble on their little jaunt, although neither had ever been at the controls before.

M-Sgt. Glen D. Woods of Muncie, Ind., and S-Sgt. Theodore S. Havens, Jr., of Washington, N. J., arrived at U. S. Caribbean Air Command headquarters last night from Caracas, Venezuela, where military authorities hald they landed the B-17 Monday after a flight across the Andes from Galapagos.

First Flight.

Both said they had observed pilots in flight and it looked pretty easy.

So, instead of servicing Galapagos' one plane for a possible mercy flight at daybreak Monday, the two sergeants said they set off for greener pastures.

Woods said he handled the controls the whole way—just did everything he had seen pilots do.

Up to 15,000 and 20,000 feet they took the bomber, headed for Waller Field on the Island of Trinidad. Woods said he had planned to set down the plane and say: "Well, here we are." It didn't quite work out that way. With only 500 gallons of gasoline left, Woods sat down at Caracas.

Officers Amazed.

Officers of the Caribbean command said they were astounded that two untrained men could fly the four-engined plane over the Andes, but it didn't seem hard to Woods and Haven. Woods said he even made most of the flight on instruments because of thick weather.

Woods said he had a little trouble getting the big plane to land properly. He had to try four times before he got the air-speed down to a safe margin. Then he made a good landing, he said.

Last night Woods and Haven arrived here and took up residence in the guardhouse.

Louisiana Winner Ready For Rest

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Earl K. Long, still flushed with elation at his thumping victory in the governorship election, prepared today to wind up his campaign affairs and take a rest.

With over 1700 of the state's 1878 precincts reporting early today Long's margin over his opponent, Sam H. Jones, had grown to 183,844 votes. Long had 349,442 to Jones' 205,598. Practically every new report added to his majority.

The voters also increased Shelby M. Jackson's lead over John Coxe for the post of superintendent of public instruction. Jackson now has a margin of better than 70,000 votes, with 278,825 to 208,163 for Coxe, the incumbent.

Grabs By Russia, Other Communists Total More Than Nazis' Before War

By The Associated Press

Before Hitler's Germany went to war, she reached out and took control of more than 100,000 neighboring square miles and upward of 28,000,000 people.

During and since the war, Russian and Communist rule have square miles and more than 110,-square miles and more than 1110,-000,000 people to the east and west of the Soviet Union.

Hitler and his Naxis won most of their territory by sending in troops or by threatening to do so.

Russia and Communism got theirs by occupying it in most cases to drive out the Germans; by winning concessions from the western allies, who needed Russia's help in the war; or by the methods of Communist parties in neighboring countries.

Red Grabs Listed

Here are the territories Russia has taken over during and since the war:

1939—Sept. 27, Russia invades Poland, starting to divide it up with Hitler; gets Polish territory under later big power agreements; 77,703 square miles, 12,775,000 people.

1939—Nov. 30, Russia attacks Finland; with peace in March, 1940, Finland gives Russia 16,173 square miles with 500,000 people.

1940—July 14, Russia takes over Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania; 61,363 square miles, 5,955,985 people.

1945—Feb. 3-11, Yalta conference promises Russia Kuriles and half of Sakhalin; 17,878 square miles, 350,000 people.

1945—March, in Armistice, Romania gives Russia back Bessarabia and northern Bukovina; 19,300 square miles, 3,500,000 people.

1945—July 29, in treaty of Moscow, Czechoslovakia gives Russia Subcarpathian Ruthenia; 4,886 square miles, 606,568 people.

1945—August, Potsdam agreement gives Russia part of East Prussia; 5,000 square miles, 1,200,000 people.

Time Table Seen

This is the time table by which Communists have won control of countires in Eastern and Central Europe:

1944—Polish committee of National liberation recognized by Big Three at Yalta, February, 1945; last top opposition leader, Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, forced to flee, October, 1947; 124,642 square miles, 23,600,000 people.

1944 — November, Communist Marshal Tito, guerrilla leader, begins remodeling Yugoslavia along Soviet lines; July 17, 1946, Gen. Draja Mihailovic, opposition leader, executed for treason; 95,558 square miles, 15.703,000 people.

1944—Sept. 9, Bulgarian Fatherland front, by coup d'Etat, comes to power; Communist led; July and August, 1945, six opposition ministers resign cabinet; Sept. 23, 1947, opposition leader Nikoli Petrov hanged as convicted traitor; 39,825 square miles; 6.077,939 people.

Acting Governor Would Call School Problem Session, Stand By President

AUSTIN, Feb. 26.—(AP)—State Sen. T. C. Chadick of Quitman, acting as governor in the absence of Gov. Beauford H. Jester and Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers, said in a press conference today:

"Possibly if I were governor I would have called a special session a little earlier than this, or after the elections.

Why?

"To properly finance rural aid schools."

Does Chadick favor secession of the South from the Democratic party because of Pres. Truman's civil rihtsg program?

"No, sir. I'm a Democrat and was elected to office as a Democrat.

"I don't agree the President has done the correct thing. But personally I favor Truman's nomination."

U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE ISSUE JOINT PROTEST OF GRAB

NEW GOVERNMENT IS CALLED "DISGUISED RED DICTATORSHIP"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26—(AP)—The United States, Britain and France today jointly condemned as a "disguised dictatorship" of Communists the new government set up in Czechoslovakia.

In a declaration issued at the state department here the three governments also said the Communists seized power through "a crisis artificially and deliberately instigated."

With an apparent reference to earlier Communist power grabs, such as in Hungary, the three western powers charged that the crisis served as a cover for "the use of certain methods already tested in other places."

State Being Remade

As a result, the statement said, Czechoslovakia has suffered "the suspension of the free exercise of parliamentary institutions and the establishment of a disguised dictatorship of a single party."

Meanwhile Communist Premier Klement Gottwald had his way clear for remaking the strategic state into a copy of Soviet Russia.

What opposition remained was driven underground. Protesting voices in newspapers and on the radio were stilled. Parties opposing the Communists were accused of conspiracy and their leaders were called "agents of reaction." Police wielded rifle butts against protesting students.

Only a semblance of the seven-party coalition government remained. Ministers not openly Communists were in most cases fellow travellers. Communists controlled the police, radios, newspapers and practically all else in Czechoslovakia.

Finland Next

With Czechoslovakia as surely a Communist state as are Yugoslavia, Albania, Bulgaria, Romania and Poland, diplomats speculated that Finland might be next for a Communist coup.

The Russian newspaper Pravda blandly asserted that Czechoslovakia had obtained freedom and democracy.

The chances appeared dimmer than ever that Czechoslovakia

Some Rivers Still Rising In Texas; End To Rain Due

By The Associated Press.

The Trinity and tributaries in the Dallas area were rising but the Brazos and Bosque in Central Texas were subsiding today as an end to general rains over the state was forecast.

The Brazos was up 15 feet at Waco but was below the minimum flood stage by seven feet. The crest of the Bosque had reached Lake Waco. Both were receding and no damage or additional heavy rains were expected.

The Trinity had risen to 32.2 feet this morning and was still rising with the U. S. weather bureau repeating warnings to farmers to remove stock from the lowlands.

A crest of 35 or 36 feet is expected tomorrow.

At Carrollton, where the bankfull stage is six feet, the Elm Fork of the Trinity river had risen to 10.2 after another two inches of rainfall yesterday and last night. Denton creek was out of banks at Roanoke and Powder creek flooded some homes in the southern section of Bonham.

The weather bureau said chances were considered slim for additionl heavy rain. It was cloudy over the state and a light drizzle crept into the coastal area.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Where Does Your Money Go?

Read the other day where country folks and farmers spend more money, proportionately, on their homes than city dwellers do.

Doesn't seem hard to believe when you think it over. Take the folks in our town, for instance: They're home-loving people—who'd rather spend an evening by the fire with a mellow glass of beer than go out in search of entertainment or diversion.

So it's only natural they put more into what means most to them and to their children: their homes. They may not have too much to spend—but it goes for those permanent, abiding comforts that make home a nicer place to be.

And from where I sit, that budget calls for some of the niceties of home life too—like cider and popcorn for the kids from time to time, and a friendly glass of beer for Mom and Dad ... things that belong with what we mean when we say "Home."

Five hours after the bomber crashed near Solberg's home it was still burning.

A search party and ambulances from Carswell air base started for Solberg's home shortly after the crash was reported by the farmer.

The site of the crash is about 12 miles from here and over a difficult route.

The bombers were on a routine training flight to the West Coast via San Antonio and El Paso, Capt. William S. Walthan, Eighth Air Force public relations officer, said in Fort Worth.

Ambulances from Carswell Air Base returned the survivors to Fort Worth.

Survivors Exhausted

Clark, who was pilot, and Goldsworthy, co-pilot, were interviewed by officers at the base, but were too exhausted to talk with reporters. Goldsworthy had a badly bruised face. None of the survivors was hurt seriously.

Names of the dead were expected to be released later in the day afted next-of-kin had been notified.

The crashed bomber took off from Fort Worth about 11 p. m., and was flying at about 10,000 feet when fire broke out in No. 4 engine. Attempts to extinguish the flames were unsuccessful.

The survivors landed over a five-mile area around the Solberg farm, 12 1-2 miles southwest of here. The plane exploded, and pieces of it were scattered over a 15-acre hilltop.

Other Bombers Continue

The other bombers continued on the flight, a routine one to San Antonio, El Paso, Los Angeles and return. Part of the mission was to drop bombs at the Wilcox Dry Lakes bombing ground 50 miles east of Tucson, Ariz.

Deputy Sheriff Doyle Spurlin of Meridian visited the scene of the crash and talked to survivors. He said they told him the No. 4 engine caught fire. Attempts to extinguish the blaze were futile. And when the flames burst through the firewall, the order to bail out was given.

The eight made the leap successfully, Spurlin said. Three unopened parachutes and one opened parachute were found at the scene, indicating that three of the men never left the plane before it exploded.

A new point of contenntion arose meanwhile in the senate rules committee.

Senator Stennis (D-Miss) said that group had agreed to take up an anti-poll-tax bill Friday. This also is part of the controversial Truman civil rights program.

In the past the Southerners have used the filibuster as their main weapon in fighting this and other measures dealing with the race question. However, a recent senate poll showed they no longer can count on the one-third-plus-one vote needed to block the debate-limiting rule called cloture.

CALVERT VIEW DUE

DALLAS, Feb. 26.—(AP)—State Democratic Chairman Robert W. Calvert will tell Saturday how he feels about National Chairman J. Howard McGrath's stand on demands of Southern governors.

Calvert is scheduled to address a meeting here Saturday.

He said he would make his position on the matter known then.

INDEPENDENCE URGED

LUFKIN, Feb. 26.—(AP)—An independent Southern Democratic move was advocated by J. M. Collins, member of the State Executive Democratic Committee, and former Rep. Martin Dies.

They suggested the South might form a Southern Democratic party or election of non-pledged electors, who could vote for their own choice for president and vice-president.

would obtain a $350,000,000 loan she long has sought from the World Bank, largely financed by the U. S. treasury. The country had received $243,602,133 of U. S. funds before the Communists took power. Most of it was the U. S. share of UNRRA.

Columns of Czech students attempted to march to Hrdcany Palace last night to see President Eduard Benes, who capitulated yesterday to Communist demands after holding out for almost a week. Police arrested 50 of them.

Student Claims Attack

One student said the police used rifle butts to push back the marchers who reached Palace Square.

More than 10,000 students had gathered in the square before Charles University in a counter-demonstration to a Communist rally. Several thousand of them reached the palace square but were dispersed there by police.

Criticism of the government has disappeared from the Czechoslovak press, which, up to Monday night, had been carrying outspoken comment on the nation's political crisis.

Efforts to reach President Benes for an interview have been unavailing.

Using the threat of a Communist-led general strike, Gottwald finally forced Benes last night to approve the new Communist government. The president accepted resignations of 14 anti-Communist moves toward controlling the security forces of the nation.

declined to speculate how long the hearings will continue.

No Examination Limit

But, he refused to speed progress by limiting cross examination.

A suggestion that such a procedure be followed came from Rep. Gossett (D-Texas), who said yesterday he objects to Senator Donnell (R-Mo) "monopolizing all the time."

Donnell replied heatedly he regards it as his duty to question witnesses, at length if necessary, and that he intends to continue.

Moore supported him, saying Donnell's cross examination has been "very revealing."

The bill the committees are considering would end what many witnesses have said is confusion resulting from the 1947 supreme court decision in the so-called California case.

The court held that California does not own the land under its coastal waters or the oil in it. The bill under study would reverse the effect of this ruling.

A similar measure was passed by the last congress but vetoed by President Truman on grounds that the court was then considering the case.

AVOIDING VANDALISM

Is America caught in a wave of destruction of public property? Newton B. Drury, Director of Park Service, thinks so. Further, he says that vandals are ruining national parks. In many cities, officials are complaining of damage to municipal recreation areas and school executives are worried, over increased defacement of school grounds and buildings.

The ravagers seem to follow a common pattern, though they operate in widely scattered geographic sections. The commonest form is name-writing, with real addresses, written on walls or cut into scenic features such as tree trunks and historic markers. Next in popularity is scattering trash and emptying refuse containers. Sometimes trailside cases are broken into, the contents thrown about wantonly. Shrubs are uprooted, benches broken. In general the aim seems undirected. Mere disorder is the motive—the fun of breaking or scattering something.

Has the war infected human beings with a desire for destruction? Has some code of discipline broken down? Whatever the underlying cause the results show that courageous thinking needs to be applied to the problem.

One school principal recalled by an elderly reader used to assemble new students at the beginning of a term and give them a talk about the ideals and purposes of the school. Among other things he spoke of desks, buildings, grounds.

"These desks are yours. Your parents bought them with hard - earned taxes. Defacing them is like spoiling something in your home. We should all take pride in everything belonging to the school, and try to leave it better than we found it."

Vandalism in that school was always less than where principals did not take pains to explain and to inspire care of public property. There may be a hint there—of maintaining positive pride instead of applying negative punishment too late.

TOWARD MORE HOUSES

The building and construction industry, and the building trades unions are working toward a plan for quicker settlement of jurisdictional labor union disputes. It would set up a five-man national board to hear such disputes where local settlement cannot be reached in ten days. The plan has been approved by contractors in both their specialty associations and their general association, and now awaits consideration in March by the American Federation of Labor.

The long-suffering public may think that the plan is a small enough gain in the muddle of house building. A substantial contribution to the slowness and the exhorbitant cost of building has been made not only by jurisdictional disputes but also by the highly restrictive rules which have been set up for building workers where union jurisdictional agreements have been reached. If a union-approved electrician's helper is not available no other man may be hired and the job must wait. In some areas the rules even set the maximum amount of progress a worker can make in a day. Plainly these restrictions slow construction and increase costs..

If machinery for quicker settlement of jurisdictional disputes merely leads more quickly to restrictive agreements, the public will lose rather than gain through it. If the machinery is used to eliminate some of the foolishness from the construction trades, their housing will go forward more rapidly and perhaps the day will return when the ordinary working citizen can afford to plan and build a home.

REALISTIC SOLUTION

Walter Lippman, in an Atlantic Monthly article based on his Phi Beta Kappa address delivered recently at the College of William and Mary, may have put his finger on the reason why American foreign policy has been unsuccessful in attaining its objective, a world at peace, though a constant effort has been made since the first World War.

Owing to our state of isolation from the rest of the world, Lippman says, we have refused to believe that rivalry leading to strife between nations is a natural and normal state. We ourselves have none of the problems raised by the contiguity of nations whose ideas and ideals are opposed to our own, and thus have failed to realize what this conjunction means. He applies this theory to our relations with Russia, saying that the cultural and ideological division of Europe is as old as the division of Christendom between Rome and Byzantium. Assuming this to be a fact, we must give up "the notion of one world, in which the Russians are our partners, and two worlds, in which we must annihilate the Russians or they must annihilate us."

Lippman urges the recognition of the fact that rivalry will continue between the two philosophies, and that it must be regulated and controlled by establishing spheres of influence and by attaining a balance of power.

"Spheres of influence" and "balance of power" are two phrases which have been in ill repute for some time, and represent ideas which many people believe have heretofore embroiled the world in war. Perhaps they have never been carried far enough. At any rate, the One World idea seems as far as ever from realization, and it may be true that compromise is the only method for keeping out of armed conflict.

HOW OLD IS OLD?

How old is old? The Australians want to challenge the United States for the Davis tennis cup, but hesitate because of the lack of young players. Of their two best players Adrian Quist is 35, and John Bromwich is 29. These years count when the owner plays a lad of college age.

At the other end of the scale it amuses or sometimes infuriates middle-aged readers to see a headline, "Aged Man Hit By Car," and learn that the venerable victim was 58.

This term, "age," needs to be defined.

ACCEPTANCE TAKES TIME

When the Social Security Act was passed, many life insurance companies were opposed, thinking it meant government competition. Now they hail it as a bedrock of insurance, and are trying to educate people about its benefits. Many another wise change has been denounced by conservatives when first proposed, and later accepted as a pillar of the social order.

But when changes need to be made, somebody must start something somewhere.

BAPTIST STANDARD EDITOR SPEAKER AT PALS CLASS BANQUET

DR. DAVID M. GARDNER OF DALLAS STRESSES SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

Dr. David M. Gardner, Dallas, editor of the Baptist Standard, was the speaker Tuesday evening at the annual banquet of the Pals Sunday School class at the First Baptist church.

A large attendance was present, including the wives of members. Herman Brown, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, was master of ceremonies.

Sunday School Work.

The minister took for the basis of his remarks the first verse of the 139th Psalm—"O Lord, Thou hast searched me and know me," and stressed the application of searching in the Sunday School work and through its ministries.

He spoke of the squandering of opportunities in Sunday School work, complimented the teaching ability of T. L. Tyson, teacher of the Pals, and told how teachers and ministers can not invite and urge persons to attend the services as can members of the classes and congregations.

Get Personal View.

The Rev. Mr. Gardner also said that a person could get a fine view of themselves by listening and observing to the talk and actions of others—remembering how they had said and done similar things on other occasions.

The Baptist editor was reared in Navarro county and started his ministry in this section. His first revival meeting was at the Lone Oak church near Bazette and he helped organize the first county Baptist association, he told his hearers.

Service Stressed.

Dr. Gardner stressed the importance of service through the Sunday School and other agencies.

Mrs. Gardner accompanied her husband here for the occasion.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the church headed by Mrs. Virgil Williamson.

Virdie Cook and Zelma Hanson, IOOF Home students, rendered a number of solos and duets, accompanied at the piano by Ruth Elaine Foster.

Present Program.

Cook gave "Old Man River" and Miss Hanson was presented in "Easter Parade" as solo numbers, while duets were "Sweethearts," "Make Believe", with "Moon Beams" an an encore number.

Dr. Gardner was presented by Dr. Jared I. Cartlidge, pastor of the church.

The program was arranged by Boyd Payne and Burleigh Butler. Morris Battle and Sam Crain constituted the food committee.

The invocation was given by Rev. R. J. Fletcher while the benediction was pronounced by Roy Bristow.

Search For New Oil Production Is Expected To Start In County Soon

Search for additional oil production in Navarro county is expected to reach a considerable tempo during 1948 with leasing activities reported in five sectors of the area, not to mention the increased drilling and production in Henderson and neighboring counties.

The Standolind corporation is leasing a large block in the Currie sector, near the Navarro-Freestone county line in the southern section of the county. No official announcement has been made relative to any contemplated drilling operation.

Large Block Acreage

The Humble Oil and Refining company has a large block northeast of Corsicana in the Petty's Chapel sector and is finishing the desired acreage. The same companu has considerable holdings in the Pickett community immediately south of Corsicana. These blocks have been acquired in recent months.

The Amerada corporation, an independent concern with headquarters in Dallas, has approximately 4,000 acres under lease in southeast Navarro county, according to information received in local circles.

Woodbine Test

Temple Hargrove, well-known operator, who drilled several tests and producers in the Richland sector, is understood to be considering a Woodbine test on the Moody tract three miles west of Wortham.,

Hunt Oil Company, Dallas, and associates, including Gulf Oil Corporation, have a large block west of the State and IOOF Homes immediately west of Corsicana and extending to the Corbet area.

No official announcement has been made as to whether a test will be drilled by Hunt and associates.

Local oil operators point out that the cost of drilling a deep test is so expensive that independent operators hesitate to drill wildcats, leaving this field principally to the majors.

Weather and road conditions during the past several weeks have been such that oil scouts and lease seekers could not contact the owners of acreage to finish out the sought blocks. Neither could rigs, derricks or other heavy machinery be moved to a drilling site even if desired.

Some drilling, however, is expected to be done during the late spring and summer months.

Drilling for shallow production in the various proven fields of the county will be done as is the customary development. The shallow drilling does not attract much interest.

Tax Refund If Income Levy Cut

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE

WASHINGTON—The income tax cutting bill passed by the house provides that the cuts become effective as of Jan. 1 of this year.

If the bill becomes a law it means that many wage earners will get substantial refunds next year on their 1948 tax withholdings. Many of these refunds would be larger than usual because tax withholdings since the first of this year have been based on the higher tax rates under the present law.

The Internal Revenue Bureau made refunds totaling $1,400,000,000 in 1947 on 1946 tax payments of some 31,000,000 persons. That's an average of about $45 per person. Refunds are now being paid for overpayments of taxes on 1947 income.

Refunds on overpaid 1948 taxes would not be made until next year for two reasons:

1. Until this year is ended, the total amount of refunds due various taxpayers can not be determined.

2. Payment of two refunds on one year's taxes, say one next July and the other in 1949, would be costly and troublesome for taxpayers and revenue collectors.

For taxpayers, it would mean the presenting of two claims instead of one. For revenue collectors, it would double the work as well as increasing the cost of handling refund claims and refund payments by check.

The tax reduction bill awaits action by the senate. If President Truman vetoes it, it will have to be passed by a two-thirds majority vote.

There have been suggestions in congress that the tax cuts be made effective July 1 instead of Jan. 1. If July 1 is the effective date then tax rates on 1948 incomes would be fixed at percentages half way between the present rates and the lower rates under a new law.

Kerens Leap Year Party Held Friday

KERENS, Feb. 25—(Spl)—The Future Homemakers of the Kerens High school, under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Frankie Porter, sponsored a "Leap Year Party" at the American Legion Hall Friday night.

The hall was decorated in hobo fashion with kegs and boxes used for seats and humorous signs tacked on the walls.

The party was carried out according to the tradition of "girl chase boy", hence the girls made the dates and furnished the cars.

Entertainment features of the evening included: guessing the number of grains on an ear of corn, potato peeling race; paper bag race and square dancing.

For refreshments each girl brought a lunch for two, packed hobo style.

A large group of youngsters dressed in blue jeans and loud shirts attended the party.

Curtis A. Keen Named President Of Rotary Club

Curtis A. Keen will head the Corsicana Rotary Club as president during 1948-49, it was announced Wednesday at the regular luncheon of the organization at the Navarro Hotel.

Keen, frozen food locker official and wholesale meat dealer, was elected at a meeting of the board of directors Tuesday night. King Elliott was re-elected secretary, and Elliott Middleton was named treasurer. Moyne L. Kelly, current president, automatically becomes vice president.

Takes Office July 1.

Keen will take over the presidency July 1.

New members of the board of directors were announced as Joe E. Butler, Bob Reading, O. L. Albritton and Sidney K. Brietz. The holdover directors are Middleton, Luther A. Johnson, Jr., Keen and A. G. Elliott.

The directors were guests at dinner Tuesday night of Elliott. The dinner was held in the Blue Room of George's Grill.

Five new members were presented pins at the Wednesday luncheon by John Pickens of Athenus, district governor.

"Rotary," he said, "cannot be put into so many words. It is all encompassing; it is a thing of the heart."

Love Rotary.

"As time goes on and you have gotten into Rotary, Rotary will get into you and you will love it."

The district governor stressed the importance of the Rotarian taking an active, progressive part in the life of a city.

"Rotary asks that you, as an individual, stand up and be counted," he said.

He praised the fellowship of the Rotary Club—an organization that this week is observing its 43rd anniversary.

"If you ever lose fellowship in this club, then this club is going to die" he warned.

Pickens was introduced by Butler.

New Members.

The new members honored at the luncheon included F. L. Frederickson, Harper Lincecum, Hoyt Moore, Jack McMeans, Jim May.

Guests included L. K. Avant of New York, official of S. H. Kress Co.; W. H. Walker, Howard Carrothers and H. M. Faulkner of Dallas, Federal Reserve Bank representatives; Tom Powers, navy recruiting officer. Ralph Tinkle of Dallas and R. F. Rutherford of Columbia, Tenn., were visiting Rotarians. Junior Rotarians present were George Sullivan and Carroll McReynolds.

Shortage Is Over.

M. Carson, assistant city engineer, has about decided the tire and tube shortage is over.

Carson early this month found a truck tire and tube mounted on a wheel and brought it to the city hall.

It can be had, he said, with proper identfication.

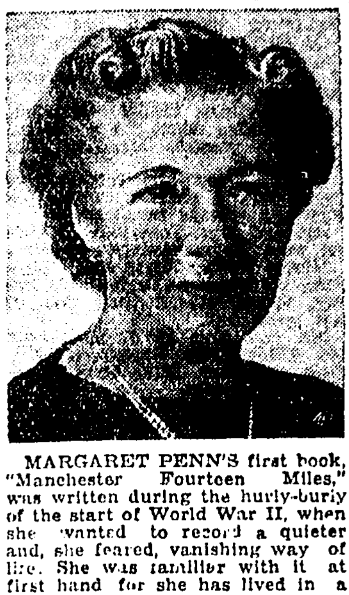
Author of the Week

By W. G. ROGERS



MARGARET PENN'S first book, "Manchester Fourteen Miles," was written during the hurly-burly of the start of World War II, when she wanted to record a quieter and, she feared, vanishing way of life. She was familiar with it at first hand for she has lived in a small English village, and her continuing interests are, she says, "the usual rural ones, gardening, the greenhouse, dogs, reading and the countryside." This book inaugurates a trilogy, of which the second volume will be laid in London. Wife of a journalist on the London Times, Mrs. Penn's only previous writing had been on a newspaper.

Committee Makes Financial Survey For New Hospital

A survey of local agencies and individuals interested in a new county memorial hospital is expected to be inaugurated this week, according to information received Wednesday from members of the master finance committee appointed recently by Dr. Gurley H. Sanders of the Navarro County Memorial Hospital Advisory board.

The committee is composed of N. Suttle Roberts, H. R. Stroube and A. G. Elliott, and is empowered to call in addtional persons if it so desires.

The county committee will meet again on call when this fihnace group is ready with recommendations and findings.

The Navarro Community Foundation recently earmarked $100,000 toward a memorial hospital of the first class with certain conditions and restrictions attached.

After a thorough canvass and survey of local funds available for such a purpose, it is expected the county-wide committee will determine what recommendations are to be made to the commissioners court in the matter.

Disabled Persons In Navarro County Given Assistance

Seventy-five Navarro countians are receiving vocational rehabilitation of the disabled through the state board of vocational education, according to I. B. Gathings, counselor for the Dallas division that embraces Navarro county. Gathings was here Tuesday and conferred with the county superintendent, city superintendent's office, Mrs. Gladys Grantham, secretary for the crippled children's program; the county health unit, W. B. Reedy, manager of the state employment agency, and others.

Services available incude medical examinations, guidance and counseling, physical restoration, vocational training in schools, shops, factories and correspondence; artificial appliances, compensation adjustment, maintenance while in training on a "needs" basis, and placement in employment.

Any citizen of the state over 16 years of age is eligible for service if he has a permanent disability, no matter how incurred, which constitutes a vocational handicap. Rehabilitation is not feasible, however, if the disabled person is unemployable because of advanced age or is unable to do any type of work.

Inspection Tour.

Staff Sergeant M. K. Riley, caretaker of the 133rd Field Artillery Headquarters battery here, and First Sergeant E. R. Garrison, regular army instructor for the 133rd left Tuesday on an inspection tour of guard units at Kerens, Athens and Crockett. The tour is the last prior to inspection of units for federal recognition, it was announced.

County And City Teachers' Units To Meet March 2

A joint meeting of the Navarro county and Corsicana units of the Texas State Teachers Association will be held in the auditorium of the Corsicana Junior High School Tuesday, March 2, at 7:30 p. m., County Superintendent J. C. Watson announced.

School board members, PTA groups and others who are interested in improving Texas schools are invited to attend the meeting, Watson said.

Purpose of the meeting, it was explained, is to study the aims and purposes of the Gilmer-Aiken committee, a legislative body which is studying the state's education system. It was appointed last June from both houses of the legislature and from the laity for the purpose of making a comprehensite survey of the schools in Texas.

Principal speaker at the March 2 meeting will be Mrs. Rae F. Still of Waxahachie, a member of the legislature and also a member the Gilmer-Aiken committee, the county superintendent announced.

State Senator James E. Taylor is chairman of the committee. He has appointed five sub-committees to survey and make recommendations on the following subjects:

1. Organization of the educational system on the state level.
2. Organization of administrative school units on a local level.
3. Financing of the educational system.
4. Textbooks, curriculum, certification and training of teachers.
5. School census, attendance, codification of school laws and building codes.

Navarro Bulldogs Lose Tuesday To Longview Quintet

The Navarro Junior College basketball team lost its final game of the 1947-48 season Tuesday night in Longview, dropping a decision to LeToureau Tech, 57-43.

The Bulldog B team came off with a win in the curtain raiser over the LeTourneau B team, 28-21.

Oliver Littlejohn copped high score for the night, getting 21 points, all of which he made in the last half of the A game. The Bulldogs were behind most of the game. They cut the margin to four points in the second half, with six minutes to go, but a final kick by the home team left Navarro in the lurch.

The White Oak Band, which won state-wide fame by playing in the Cotton Bowl game this year, entertained the crowd at the half-time intermission with musical numbers.

$500. That's your total tax for 1947.

Tax Amount Given.

Turn back to page 1, line 7, write that $500 tax. That's the tax not only on your $4,000 salary but also on your $200 in interest, $300 in dividends.

But in 1947 the boss withheld $406 tax from your $4,000 salary. Write that $406 on line 8 (A.)

Subtract and on line 9 write the difference—$94—between the total $500 tax owed and the $406 tax withheld. So you still owe $94 tax.

Some people will find too much tax was withheld from them in 1947. Then the collector owes you a refund. On line 10 list the amount of refund owed you.

Below line 10 make a check mark to show whether you want cash (by checking "refund") or credit on your 1948 tax.

When you find you don't owe any more tax than was withheld, just file the returns. If any refund is due you, you'll get it.

area last summer and in the early fall and it was November before there were any rains.

"That meant wheat got away to a slow start. It will now take more than the normal amount of rainfall to make a good wheat crop. Snowfall which runs off frozen ground will provide no soil moisture."

No Storms Seen.

But the soil conservation service, officials said, does not think there will be the heavy dust storms over a wide area this spring such as occurred in 1934, 1935 and 1936.

They say that to have the return of such storms, there must be a complete crop failure and drought and probably two crop failures before the soil gets away.

"I don't think we'll have anything this year compared with 1935 but if it stays dry I wouldn't be surprised but what we do next year," one said.

The agency is much concerned, however, he added, about the long-range program for preventing return of the dust bowl.

It is alarmed because new land is being plowed up and if there is a two year drought, general soil blowing again is likely.

Burglars Enter Wholesale Store; Get Fags, Food

Burglars crashed a panel in a door at the Patrick Wholesale Grocery Co., 205 East Seventh Ave., Tuesday night and took an undetermined amount of cigarettes and groceries.

The burglary was discovered when the place was opened Wednesday morning, and was investigated by Chief of Police Bruce Nutt and Patrolman Kelsey Blakeney.

The burglars left a tire tool in the building, apparently the instrument used to batter their way through the east door.

It was announced at the office of the concern Wednesday that approximately 250 cartons of cigarets were taken. Other groceries were apparently taken, but a check had not been made.

No attempt was made to break into either the vault or the safe, although a small amount of change was removed from the candy box in the office.

Huge Locomotive Back On Tracks Late Wednesday

Engine No. 803, Cotton Belt System, derailed early Wednesday morning, blocking Highways 75 and 287 for almost 12 hours, was returned to the rails shortly after 4 p. m.

The huge locomotive was pulling a perishable fruit train when the rails snapped, causing the drivers and trucks to leave the rails and coming to a stop on the crossties.

No one was hurt.

All traffic on the highways was rerouted via Ninth street from the bus station via the P. and S Hospital and back to the main highways.

Traffic on the railroad was not blocked, since there were several switch lines at the site of the mishap.

ETSTC BEAUTY WITH A BIG HEART—A twelve-year-old school girl in Navarro county, who is tired of wearing the same old dresses and whose father is in the hospital, has three more dresses now, thanks to Dixie Moody of Pecan Gap. Dixie, 1948 Locust beauty at East Texas State Teachers college, mailed the clothes, all from her own campus wardrobe, in reply to one of several letters she received after her picture appeared last month in a newspaper. "Unless I had done something to help the girl," Dixie said, "I would have felt bad the rest of my life."

Kerens Preacher Challenges Men Of Baptist Brotherhood To Accept Duty

By PAUL MOORE
Daily Sun Staff.

Dr. E. R. Page, pastor of the First Baptist church, Kerens, issued a challenge to the Corsicana Baptist Association Brotherhood for the men to take their rightful place in the church. He spoke at the February meeting held in the Memorial Baptist church here Monday evening.

Frost was selected as the site for the March 22 meeting. A man-and-boy program will be given.

T. S. Patrick of North Side church was elected president of the Brotherhood to succeed the late C. A. Ferguson of Corsicana.

Lives Changed.

"There is no other way to lift the world from the mire of sin except through the message from the redeemed children under the direction of the Holy Ghost as men touched of God," the minister declared as he summed up his address after portraying by the Scriptures how the lives of many men have been changed by the touch of God.

In the beginning of his remarks, the Kerens pastor said that the men should join together with Jehovah in a perpetual covenant after referring to man's frequent forgetting of covenants, and urged the need for more of the spirit of God and worship in deed and in truth, pointing out the inability of man to do anything for the Kingdom with the aid of the Spirit.

Always On Time.

"God is on time all of the time," the minister asserted, and referred to His raising up of a man for any needed job, mentioning Abram who as a rich man was called, and later became Abraham, a mighty leader; Gideon, to tear down idols; Isaiah, the prophet; Ezekiel; Jesus, who took men from various walks of life and made fishers of men of them after their lives were touched of God; Saul of Tarsus, who became the Apostle Paul, and later Dwight L. Moody, Dr. E. Y. Mullins, a telegrapher, who became one of the greatest theologians; S. P. Brooks, a section hand, who became president of Baylor; Lee Scarbrough, a cowboy at Yale, who headed the Southwest Theologictl Seminary, and others.

Need of God.

"If every layman in the Southern Baptist convention were touched as was Paul and heeded the touch, the Kingdom would come in great might in the present generation," Dr. Page declared, and then spoke of the need of God-touched men as statesmen are perplexed and decried the lack of reliance on God in the present times.

Dr. Page said the late President Wilson prayed and wept in his closet for "the imperilled liberties of my people."

Statistics Presented.

Statistics quoted by the minister included seven out of 10 people in the world have never named the name of Christ, and of those included in the 30 percent, 60 percent are Catholics, while only 1 1-4 percent hold to the beliefs of the Baptists. Only one-third of the membership of a church participates in revival and other services of a congregation.

"We have all too long left to the women the church work," Dr. Page asserted, and then added: "The Kingdom is man's job and can't be done by women."

Could Change World.

The speaker quoted from a churchman's messaage that 100 men loving nothing but God and hating nothing but sin could change the world.

E C. Butler, Emhouse, chairman of the program committee, presented the speaker. Vice President Denn of Frost opened the meeting.

A musical program was given by Miss Jennie Nell Gray, pianist of the host church, and a quartet of D. W. Barnes, Frank Ewing, Rev. J. B. Ousley and Dub Barnes rendered "Rock of Ages."

Churches represented were Barry, Calvary, First Baptist, North Side, Memorial, Emhouse, Farmer, Frost, Kerens, Blooming Grove and Richland.

Rev. J. B. Ousley, host pastor, pronounced the benediction.

Negro Roomer Is Still Missing

A fire that swept a rooming house at 307 East Ninth Ave. Wednesday morning apparently scared Robert Lee Gibson, Negro roomer, so that he hasn't stopped running yet, firemen said Thursday.

No trace has been found of the Negro since the blaze destroyed the Sampson Hornbuckle rooming house.

A thorough search by firemen discounted belief that he might have burned to death.

orest Fires In exas Show Need or Federal Aid

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Forest fires in East Texas last fall were cited as good reason why thei should be no reduction in the government fire control and prevention operations.

Rep. Pickett (D-Tex) told a house appropriations committee that the fires did $1,000,000 in damage to timber alone on 25,121 acres in Liberty, Harris, Montgomery, San Jacinto and Walker counties. Nine hundred separate fires broke out in these counties between Sept. 22 and Oct. 3, he testified.

Pickett urged also that funds be provided to carry on research and promote utilization of both the pine and hardwood forests of East Texas. Dr. Paul L. Boynton, president of Stephen F. Austin college at Nacogdoches, also appeared before the committee.

Serve Them a Lenten Snack Supper

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor.

Judging from queries many homemakers want suggestions for quick-to-prepare, economical snack suppers—and this time of year it's good to have some on tap that are suitable for Lent.

One of my sisters gave a fish-snack supper recently, patterned after a smorgasbord table, that was perfectly delicious and easy to put together. But its chief recommendation is that it's elastic and will fit practically any budget. It can be as economical or as lavish as you like, depending on the number and kind of snacks selected—but either way it's popular, especially with men

The one hot dish served was creamed finnan haddie, but another fish could be chosen, depending on whit is available, liked and economical. If a white-meated fish other than finnan haddie is used the cream sauce should be well-seasoned. Worcestershire sauce does wonders here, but add it sparingly—just a quarter of a teaspoon will often do the trick. Parsley, if it is in the refrigerator, is a big help too.

Along with the hot dish there was a cold potato salad with anchovies and a plate of stuffed eggs. Then there were side dishes of good-tasting fish snacks; sardines, smoked salmon, herring fillets in a delicious sauce, and to go with them pickled beets, olives, radishes, celery. And of course there was lots of thin rye bread and butter. Other canned fish such as tuna and shrimp could have been used and another salad of a seasonal and reasonably-priced vegetable, such as cabbage, would have been a penny-saving choice. Inexpensive varieties of cheese can also pinch-hit.

A cheese snak with a most interesting flavor was served at one of the best parties I've been to this winter. I went home with the recipe and here it is:

Savory Cheese Spread.

1-2 4-ounce package Liederkranz cheese, 2 3-ounce packages cream chees, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 1-2 teaspoon paprika, chopped chives or onion powder to taste, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Leave both the Liederkranz and the cream cheese at room temperature to soften. Then put them in a small bowl and blend them well. Add celery salt, paprika, chopped chives or onion powder to taste and Worcestershire sauce and mix thoroughly. Makes about 1 cup.

This can be put in an attractive small bowl on a tray and surrounded by lots of crisp crackers so that guests can spread their own.

Camp and Hospital Committee Of Red Cross Is Working For Disabled Vets

The Navarro County chapter of American Red Cross, which currently is seeking $13,955 as its 1948 quota, has one group that works by the day, so to speak.

It is the Camp and Hospital Service committee headed by Mrs. Jane Jester Chilton, and it works hand in glove with the Veterans Hospital at Waco.

Since June of 1947 the chapter, for instance, has sent 505 gifts to the unit. The group has spent $293.54 for presents.

50 Gifts Per Month

The quota of 50 gifts per month to the Waco unit is still in force, and will still be met.

In addition the chapter had assisted financially in buying draperies for one of the music and recreation rooms at the VA installation.

Last Christmas the committee was at it more or less constantly.

They sent 105 gifts for the patients. Part of them were donated by the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Nature Study Club, the Twentieth Century Club and the D. A. R. Volunteer workers came to the East Collin St., headquarters and did the wrapping.

Wrap Gifts

During November Mrs. Chilton took a group of volunteer workers to the hospital to wrap gifts, and two other groups went during December.

The local organization spent $36.36 for Yuletide decorations for the various wards at the hospital.

The general run of Christmas gifts went through the channels. They included mechanical pencils, tobacco pouches, cigarette cases, flashlights, playing cards, T-shirts, handkerchiefs, shower shoes, memorandum books, bill folds, cigarettes, cigars, chewing tobacco, snuff, chewing gum and ties.

Mrs. Chilton's committee is composed of Mrs. Ralph R. Brown, Mrs. John F. Adams, Mrs. Wade Blackford, Mrs. Ed Willis, Mr. Pete Willis, Alvin Shwarts, Reynaud Stroube, Tom Spikes, Freddy Banks of Kerens, Younger Cannon of Dawson, Mrs. W. F. Bonnett of Frost.

It Happened 25 Years Ago Today

(From the Files of the Corsicana Daily Sun.)

Rep. J. T. Stroder reported that efforts were being made in Austin to appoint Judge H. B. Daviss of Corsicana as a member of the board of regents of the University of Texas.

The Texas senate confirmed 30 appointees of Gov. Pat Neff to various state offices.

U. S. Senator Carraway of Arkansas was reported involved in a street fight in Washington, D. C. Extent of damage to the participants was not reported.

J. H. Dickinson, Sydney Marks, A. A. Allison, and Arthur J. Reinhart spoke before the regular meeting of the Lion's Club. Dickinson was the principal speaker, and envisioned Corsicana as a city of 50,000 population in the near future.

The Federal Council of Christian Churchs of Christ in America called upon the U. S. government to adopt a policy of co-operation with foreign nations and take a larger part in international problems.

WORLD PEACE CALLS FOR UNITED CHRISTIAN EFFORT

Politics and Economics Not Enough—Stable World Order Demands Vital Religious Faith—Churches Doing Stupendous Missionary Work—Christianity World-Wide in Scope

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

In some degree, everyone asks himself the question, "What is the supreme good? What should I live for? What is the great end of life? Why am I here?" There seems to be more of this sort of soul-searching going on today than for generations past. Everybody is thinking. The world's mood is serious as it is confronted by the gravest issues, social, political, economic, national.

For the Christian, these questions are comparatively easy to answer. The supreme good in life is implicit trust in Christ. The end of all living for the Christian is to give God glory and grow a soul in the process. And why are we here? To bear witness to the goodness of God as He has revealed that goodness in Christ.

One by One

And yet, easy as these questions are to answer in words they are by no means easy to answer in daily living. The Sunday School Lesson this week deals with the world mission of the Church, and the key-word, of course, it witnessing. For God has laid it down as a dictum that the world is to be brought to the way of His will not through massive organization or by the enthusiasm of great movements, but by the witness which individual Christians are to bear each day to the benefits of Christian faith and love. True, whole nations have espoused Christianity, and made it official, as when Constantine put the cross above the eagles of Rome. But that was one of the greatest blunders in the annals of the Church. For Christ's explicit command was to make disciples—to win people one by one—in all nations. They were to be initiated into the Kingdom by baptism in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Whenever and wherever the waters of the mysictal rite of baptism touch a person, there and thus the rule of Christ extends. The borders of the Kingdom expand wherever, in urban church or in rural meeting house or in missionary jungle, a single soul enters upon discipleship to the supreme Sovereignty.

Leaders Desperately Needed

Many people today are unaware of the prodigious missionary work which every branch of the Christian Church is carrying on the world over. Report has it that when Chiang Kai-Shek was asked what China needed most, his answer was, "More missionaries." In a day when the common people and their rights are being highlighted, it is well to remmeber that the missionaries have the reputation on every continent of being the common people's best friends. They know the common people—the way they live, their needs, their aspirations. To invest in missions today, no matter to what branch of the Christian Church one gives his allegiance, is to invest in the most hopeful of peace projects. Fundamental to world peace is the spirit of man, and basic in the moulding of man's spirit is the influence of religion.

The scientists of today confess themselves unequal to the present spiritual emergency... Politicians even make campaign patter of the religious utterances which are current. Publicists of high and low degree are saying that there must be a spiritual basis for a new world order. Cordell Hull wrote several years ago: "Humanity desperately needs today a moral and spiritual rebirth, a revitalization of religion,". General MacArthur has declared that the basic problems of this age are theological. The largest association of business men in North America set up a few years ago a special department to arouse the interest of business men in religion. Leaders in labor movements are speaking to the same effect. Newspaper editors and columnists have joined the chorus. All sorts and conditions of men reveal a stirring of this consciousness which re-echoes the strong words of Holy Writ regarding men's duty to God and to each other.

A Glorious Heresy

Saint Paul had received an overwhelming commission. He was to go forth and carry the new message of the gospel to men and women of every race and color. This was heresy in that day and while today we confess the validity of the missionary movement, we often belle our words in our neglect or in the scoffing words we let fall about missionaries and their work.

If, as we claim the supreme struggle of modern times is to retain the rights and privileges of all men regardless of race or creed or color, is the way not plain before our feet? With unique significance the sovereignty of the Saviour appeals as the one way out—for He is "they Way." No new treaty in a treaty-breaking world can arrest the mad reversion to chaos which follows a great war. Only Christianity has the power to soften and sway men's hearts, and to enable them to live honest, unselfish, brotherly lives.

Live Jap Time Bomb Found On Street By Girl

DURANT, Okla., Feb. 26—(AP)—Eight-year-old Judy Bryant found a funny looking object on the street and decided to take it to class to show her friends.

The object caused a lot of excitement—it turned out to be a "live" Japanese time bomb.

Colonel Ellis B. Richie, National Guard officer, said the shell was obsolete and was set to explode in mid-air after being fired from a smooth bore rifle.

Ownership of the shell is not known. Richie said it will be exploded in the country.

Vice President Of T&P Lines Dead

DALLAS, Feb. 26.—(AP)—William H. Tobin, 33, a retired vice president of the Texas and Pacofic Railway, and one of the six railroading brothers, died yesterday in Marlin, Falls county, where he had been vacationing.

Born in Missouri, Tobin had his first job at 16, with the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railway. He climbed from station helper to conductor.

In 1916, after service with the Kansas City Southern Railway, he joined the Texas and Pacific. Meanwhile, his brothers held other railway jobs in Texas.

One brother, Pat, engineered the first Katy train into Denison, later becoming mayor of that city.

wind for the decisive round of discussions, expected to start tomorrow.

Prime speculation centered around when Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko would speak and what he would say.

Red View Awaited.

The taciturn Soviet delegate said merely "maybe yes, maybe no" when questioned as to whether he would lay the Kremlin's position before the council tomorrow.

Persons who have watched the Russians operate expected Gromyko to attack the United States and Britain. In lobby conversations with reporters he already has accused the British of obstructing partition.

The U. S. and Russia joined to support partition when the plan was adopted last Nov. 29 in the U. N. Assembly. It was considered likely that now Gromyko will express Soviet concern over the approach taken by the U. S. to the problem of enforcement.

Two Proposals Made.

Some well-informed sources, however, believed the Soviet deputy foreign minister might have difficulty in punching holes in the American argument that the council could not enforce assembly decisions.

Two formal resolutions are on the table. They include the American demand for creation of a Big Five committee to study the Palestine situation and Colombia's suggestion for a special session of the general assembly to reconsider the partition scheme.

ARABS THREATEN U. S.

CAIRO, Feb. 26.—(AP)—The Arab League has warned that "all Arab states" will cancel their oil concession to the United States if the U. S. keeps pushing Palestine partition, a league source said today.

The informant said the warning was given in a note sent to Washington yesterday. He said it threatened cancellation of the concessions if the U. S. "continues to use its influence in the (United Nations) Security council to partition Palestine."

Ava Gardner Now Seeking Release From MGM Ties

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Now it's Ava Gardner who is seeking her release from MGM.

The Smithfield, N. C., actress joins Robert Walker, Red Skelton and others who want to end their contracts with the Culver City studio. But, like the others, it's doubtful if she will get her wish. Ava, now playing a convincing goddess in "One Touch of Venus" at U-I, is a cinch for top stardom.

Claudette Colbert is still sticking to her demand for a working day that ends at 5 p. m. (The reason she was replaced by Katherine Hepburn in "State of the Union.") She contends that she does not photograph her best in the late afternoon. But most producers feel they need the long working day to pare costs. Claudette's "Midnight Lace" has been indefinitely postponed at U-I for expense reasons.

Mack Sennett, who is suing the "High Button Shoes" company over the use of his bathing beauties and Keystone cops in its "Mack Sennett" ballet, told me something which may prove maddening to the Broadway show's owners. Said he: "If they had asked me if they could use my properties, I would have said 'go ahead, no charge.'" But they didn't ask, so he is suing for $250,000 damages.

"The Gauntlet," the small-town minister yarn which Paramount has been preparing, has been shelved. It's the same old reason—the Protestants can't agree on how the story should be treated. That's why you see more pictures about the Catholic church, which has a regular system for approving screen stories.

Eighty Gridders Out For Panther Spring Practice

Spring football practice sessions got under way at the Junior High school this week with 80 candidates out for the squad the first day, Coaches J. H. Compton and Bill Hay have reported.

The first week of practice will be devoted to drills in the fundamentals, following which the players will be divided up for more advanced drills, the mentors said.

The eighty boys who reported for practice constitutes the largest turnout at the school in recent years.

Spring practice will be terminated with the annual Green and White game, which will be sponsored this year by the Corsicana Dad's Club, on March 18.

U.S. Said Holding Russian Prisoners

MOSCOW, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Pravda's Berlin correspondent charged today that United States authorities are holding more than 200 Soviet citizens in a prison at Straubing, Bavaria.

Two Russian news correspondents were permitted to visit the prison Feb. 2, and found 61 convicted criminals who could be classified as Russian. They found the prison population composed of 233 persons. Of these, 157 were Poles.

This story beats anything Poe had to say about bells. The bell in this story tolled clear from Gibralter, courtesy U. S. Navy.

Bob McCracken, husky, amiable managing editor of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times told me about the bells in a Juarez, Mexico, night club, just before the floor show started. McCracken polished off a steak, lighted a cigarette, settled back in his chair and began talking. Heres' the story:

So many Corpus Christi boys signed on the cruiser Houston during the war that someone decided the ship should carry the old bell of the city's former volunteer fire department. The bell long had been in idleness - - - after all, Corpus Christi has had paid firemen for decades.

Bell Accepted

The navy accepted and the bell was installed on the cruiser.

Last year, Roy Miller died. Roy Miller, you'll remember, was one of the most capable lobbyists the southwest ever sent to Washington. Before he took to the national scene, he had been mayor and outstanding citizen of Corpus Christi. His orations will be long-remembered along the Gulf coast. And he was for years a sponsor and supporter of Corpus Christi's old volunteer fire department.

The day Miller died, Tom Cahill appeared in front of McCracken's desk. Cahill was a town character, an elderly plumber with the map of Ireland on his face. He was also a former member of the old volunteer fire department.

Recording Made

"I have an idea," said the colorful Cahill. "You remember the bell we gave to the cruiser Houston."

"I remember," McCracken replied.

"I want the navy to make a recording of that bell and fly it to Corpus Christi. I want it tolled at Mr. Miller's funeral."

"We don't know where the cruiser is and the funeral is two days away."

"The navy will do it," said Cahill, "if Congressman John Lyle asks them. All I want you to do is to ask Mr. Lyle."

"I'll see what can be done," McCracken said cagily.

"You'll do it now," said the positive plumber. "I'll wait."

McCracken sent a wire to Miss Mary Cowles, secretary to Rep. Lyle, in Washington.

The funeral of Roy Miller was held. Weeks passed. Then one day a big box arrived at the Caller-Times for Bob McCracken.

The box was from the U. S. Navy, a recording of the bell of the cruiser Houston. The navy had found the cruiser at Gibraltar. McCracken took the records home and played them on his phonograph. It was just, bong, bong, bong for 45 minutes.

McCracken gave the records to Cahill who was delighted.

"We'll play them at all public occasions," he said.

Several months ago Cahill died. By this time, the recording had been forgotten. For him, the bell did not toll.

Can A Mule Sit Down? The Circus Man Says "Yes"

By GENE PLOWDEN
AP Newsfeatures.

SARASOTA, Fla.—Can a mule sit down?

This is just one of the scores of questions asked the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey circus during the "off" season when the show is in winter quarters here.

They come in every day, in batches from all over the country. Most of them are from circus fans but some come from writers, lecturers and others seeking facts not found in books.

The one about the mule came from Mrs. Maud Crowley, of Marblehead, Mass. Of course, Mrs. Crowley's young son, David, asked her, but she didn't know and neither did any authorities she could think of, including Harvard University.

Encyclopedias made no mention of a mule's sitting abilities

Mrs. Crowley enclosed a sketch of a dog sitting, and asked if a mule can sit like that.

Her inquiry brought a prompt reply from Roland Butler, general press representative who wrote: "Yes, a mule can sit down, like a dog. Mules often sit, to rest or from just plain cussedness."

That took care of that, but most inquiries go to Leonard S. Aylesworth, head of the circus' seat department and one of the veterans on the lot. Ken knows everything about a circus. Many inquiries come from model circus builders. They ask for exact dimensions of wagons, tents, seats, trains; the length of tent poles, ridge poles, guy lines. Some want to know the number of animals, wagons, railroad cars and other equipment. They request photographs, blue prints and drawings.

One man said he had a complete model circus, including hand-carved elephants, camels and giraffes; a loyout of tents, wagons and railroad cars, baggage wagons and cages.

Another said he had spent 40 years building 5 wagons, three trains of flat and stock cars, and a big top complete with its more than 10,000 seats.

Coach Boyd Payne Attends T-Clinic

Boyd Payne, Corsicana high school coach, left for Houston on Thursday to attend the "T-Clinic" football school being held there during the rest of this week.

He will return this week-end, and will be in charge of the Tiger baseball team, which is scheduled to start its practice on Monday, March 1.

Maybe He Just Didn't Want To Darken Her Door

The police department Thursday hunted a dusky Diogenes-like fellow, but one designated by equipment only.

He had a lamp in his hand.

This fellow wasn't looking for an honest man. And neither were the cops.

They were looking for the negro with the lamp in his hand, and maybe a bed quilt, wrapped tunic-like around his shoulders.

Mozelle Liggins, who lives down about the 800 block of East First Ave., reported to the police that the man came to her house and: gave her a whoppin', stole a lamp, grabbed a quilt and departed.

The department was unable to locate the man Wednesday night.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF LOCAL CAMP FIRE GIRLS REVIEWED AT ANNUAL BANQUET MONDAY

Reaffirmation of interest in the girls who wear the familiar dark blue skirt, the white blouse and red tie highlighted the annual banquet session at Kinsloe House on Monday evening when officials of Corsicana Camp Fire Girls assembled to review achievements of the organization during the past year. As accomplishments of 1947-48 were enumerated by the various speakers, Glen Thompson, president and master of ceremonies, envisioned even greater progress for the future. President Thompson revealed that the organization is broadening its horizons and reaching goals never before attaised in Corsicana.

After an invocation by the Rev. Jack Goff, an appetizing dinner with individual chicken pies as the piece de resistance, was served at tables adorned with globes and vari-hued flags of the nations, in recognition of the year's theme, "Hello World, Let's Get Together." Place cards and program booklets emphasizing the same theme, and miniature busts of Camp Fire Girls marked covers for members and guests.

Miss Julia Ann Rankin, the first speaker, called attention to "World Brotherhood" as it was stressed at the recent Youth Conference in Cleveland, Ohio, where more than twelve thousand young people of all races and colors assembled for inspiration and guidance. Miss Rankin attended the Conference as one of the representativesa of the Youth Fellowship of First Methodist Church.

Report of Leaders' Association

Mrs. C. C. Weatherford, president of Camp Fire Leaders' Association, called attention to the activities of the Camp Fire leaders and characterized them as "Camp Fire in Corsicana." They are the women who give their time and thought to keeping Camp Fire alive in Corsicana and the membership interested throughout the year, she declared.

Mrs. Weatherford listed the various community activities and projects of the leaders and their groups, mentioning especially the preparation of sewing bags to be sent to American Friends Service in New York for distribution overseas. She spoke of the successful Training School with Miss Harriet Dively as instructor for Blue Bird and Camp Fire leaders, and of the assistance given Mrs. Louise Smith in Day Camp activities.

Leaders who organize the groups and direct the weekly activities of Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls in Corsicana under the supervision of Mrs. Weatherford include Mesdames J. S. Finch Jr., John Pugh, L. W. Love, Robert Owen, John Rice, J. H. Montfort, M. D. Quinn, Roberta Steele, J. W. McCammon, Wilbur Thompson, L. A. Johnson, Jr., Dean Milkes, G. W. Weatherby, Clyde Gutshall, J. W. Hall, Chas. Pugh, Sam Allen, Fullwood Boyd, F. C. Lancton, Joe B. Fortson, Jr., W. R. Sneed and Miss Dorothy Martin.

Executive's Report

In the absence of Miss Gertrude Patrick, executive secretary, who was taken to P&S Hospital Monday for an emergency operation, Mrs. Louise Smith, office assistant, gave the executive's report which included data on membership, leaders, camping sessions at Wanica, and other facts that indicated a large and growing Camp Fire organization in Corsicana. Attention was called to the present membership of approximately five hundred girls, and to the organization of two groups for Negro Camp Fire Girls, as an indication that the organization is broadening its horizons, as previously stated by President Thompson.

Guest Speaker.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Felix Harris of Dallas, Regional Four director, who praised the organization that offers fun, friendship, achievement and high ideals to girls from seven to 18. His interest in Camp Fire was kindled by two former Corscanans, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Williams, the speaker revealed, as he paid particular tribute to Mrs. Williams, whose enthusiasm for the work spread throughout the nation and resulted in her election to the national presidency of Camp Fire Girls, Inc.

The sepaker called attention to T. C. Orr's continued interest in Camp Fire and to the participation of his brother, Jack Orr, of Dallas, and daughter, Miss Peggy Orr, of Port Arthur, in Camp Fire activities of their respective cities.

New Home in Manhattan.

The speaker mentioned the fact that Camp Fire Girls now have a "real home in Manhattan," having recently moved into new quarters, at 16 East 48th street. The new headquarters, which was purchased at a cost of $185,000, will be the center for more than 360,000 Camp Fire Girls belonging to 250 councils throughout the United States, he said. Steady growth of the movement, founded in 1910, has led to continued need for more space, so it was decided to buy a whole building and thus end the constant search for office space for all time, the speaker revealed.

Praised Staff.

Mr. Harris paid tribute to the national, the regional and the local staffs and their splendid work, but impressed his listeners that it was the lay person upon whom the progress of Camp Fire depends. In fact, he declared that the work cannot be carried on without the volunteer assistance of leaders. It will be through the interest and co-operation of these leaders that Southwestern Camp Fire Girls will finally be molded into the finest organization in the nation.

Region Four, which is composed of New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, now has a membership of more than 30,000 Camp Fire Girls, the speaker reported, and he predicted a great increase in numbers by next conference date.

In conclusion, the speaker urged all present to join hands and give of their best to the "best youth program in the land."

Mrs. Harris, wife of the sepaker, was introduced to members of the organization as the "power behind the Regional Four director," and as his constant companion on all of his visits to the various councils in the five-state area.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—(AP)—How you gonna keeep 'em down in the mines?

That is the big economic problem today in the booming anthracite fields of Eastern Pennsylvania, where hard coal is again the black bread of plenty.

There have been lean years here in the hunkerous man-made hills of the beautiful Wyoming Valley. In those years depression and the rising use of oil and natural gas as fuel dropped the production of the rich Pennsylvania fields to half its peak 1923 output of 93,339,000 tons.

Coal Market Widens.

The worry then was to find work. Thousands of men dug bootleg coal to keep hunger from their homes.

Today oil is short and the coal market again is widening.

"Our biggest problem now is to get out enough coal to meet the demand," said F. W. Earnest, president of the anthracite institute.

And the crux of that problem is —there are thousan odifs zl,8lz. m —there are thousands of unemployed men here, but they won't go down into the mines. It has both coal company and labor union officials worried.

Some Make $100.

The pay is good.

"A miner can average $15 a day," said Harry W. Montz, mining engineer for the Lehigh Valley Coal Company. "And a good worker can make $100 a week or more.

"A young man can become a miner after serving only two years as an apprentice laborer and even as a laborer he can get $10 to $12 a day.

"Mining coal takes more skill than most factory jobs. It is a craftsman's job—just as much so as cabinet work."

But employment in the 470-square-mile area where the bulk of the nation's hard coal is produced has dropped from about 150,000 men in 1920 to 79,000. About one-third are actual miners.

4,000 More Needed.

"There are operations in this area today that could use 4,000 more miners," said Earnest, "and the anthracite industry as a whole could easily employ 8,000."

Why are $100 a week jobs going begging? Many sons and grandsons of Slav, Welsh and English immigrants who came here to work the mines have a reluctance to work underground. They fear, as one man said, "they'll be old men at 40, broken in health, with their faces and hands blue-pitted from the coal."

Many want to get away from their father's trade and become "white-collar workers." So they seek lower paying jobs in factories and offices.

Arkansas Opposes Truman.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Southern opposition to President Truman and his civil rights proposals has a new recruit today.

The Arkansas Free Enterprise Association—an organization of cotton planters, business and professional men—announced it would campaign to elect unpledged Democratic presidential electors in Arkansas this year.

Price Index Drops

NEW YORK, Feb. 26—(AP)—The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index declined on Feb. 24 to the lowest point since Aug. 19, 1947.

The index, representing the sum total of the price per pound of 31 foods in general use, stood at $6.61 on Feb. 24. This compared with $6.76 a week earlier and $6.57 on Aug. 19, 1947.

First Of Family Suppers Held At First Methodist

The first of a series of pre-Easter Wednesday night family suppers was held at the First Methodist church Wednesday night with 127 present.

The Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, pastor, discussed "Missions In China" which will be the theme through the series of services. The pastor also led the brief sing-song. Mrs. W. L. Kirk rendered two solos, accompanied by Mrs. O. W. Holmes.

The birthdays of Mrs. J. M. Gordon and M. C. Dickson were observed.

The supper Wednesday evening was a covered dish affair with members of Circle I Woman's Society of Christian Service as hostesses.

The Rev. Mr. Bohmfalk told of the recent celebration of the 100th anniversary of missions in China inaugurated by the Methodist church, and reviewed conditions in that land prior to the entrance of the Methodist missions. He compared the progress made during the past century with the earlier conditions, and stressed the need for continued activities in the mission field there.

BAR ASSOCIATION URGES JUDGE MAYS TO RETAIN OFFICE

LEIGHTON B. DAWSON EIECTED PRESIDENT AT ANNUAL MEET MONDAY

Officers for the ensuing year were elected and a resolution asking Judge A. P. Mays to reconsider his decision to retire from the bench and seek re-election highlighted the annual meeting of the Navarro Bar Association at the Corsicana Country Club Monday evening.

Seventeen practicing attorneys here attended.

A resolution presented by Ed Roy Simmons on the tidelands question was adopted and copies were sent to President Truman, Senators Connally and O'Daniel, and Representative Olin E. Teague, as well as to the governor and attorney general of Texas.

Ask Mays to Reconsider.

Following the presentation of the resolution requesting Mays to permit the announcement of his candidacy for re-election as district judge by J. C. Jacobs, short talks were given by Norris W. Lovett, J. C. Roe, C. W. Taylor, C. T. Banister, J. S. Simkins and T. L. Tyson, it was stated, all of whom spoke of the excellent record of Judge Mays and expressed hope he would reconsider his announced plan to retire from the bench.

Judge Mays expressed his appreciation of the resolution, but said that his present plans almost required his return to the private practice of law. He promised, it was stated, to announce his decision at a special meeting of the bar Wednesday, March 3. A committee of J. C. Roe, Claude L. Milburn and Norris W. Lovett was appointed to make arrangements for the special meeting.

Jack H. Thompson, retiring president, presided.

Officers Elected.

New officers are Leighton B. Dawson, president; Claude L. Milburn, vice president, and Julius C. Jacobs, secretary-treasurer.

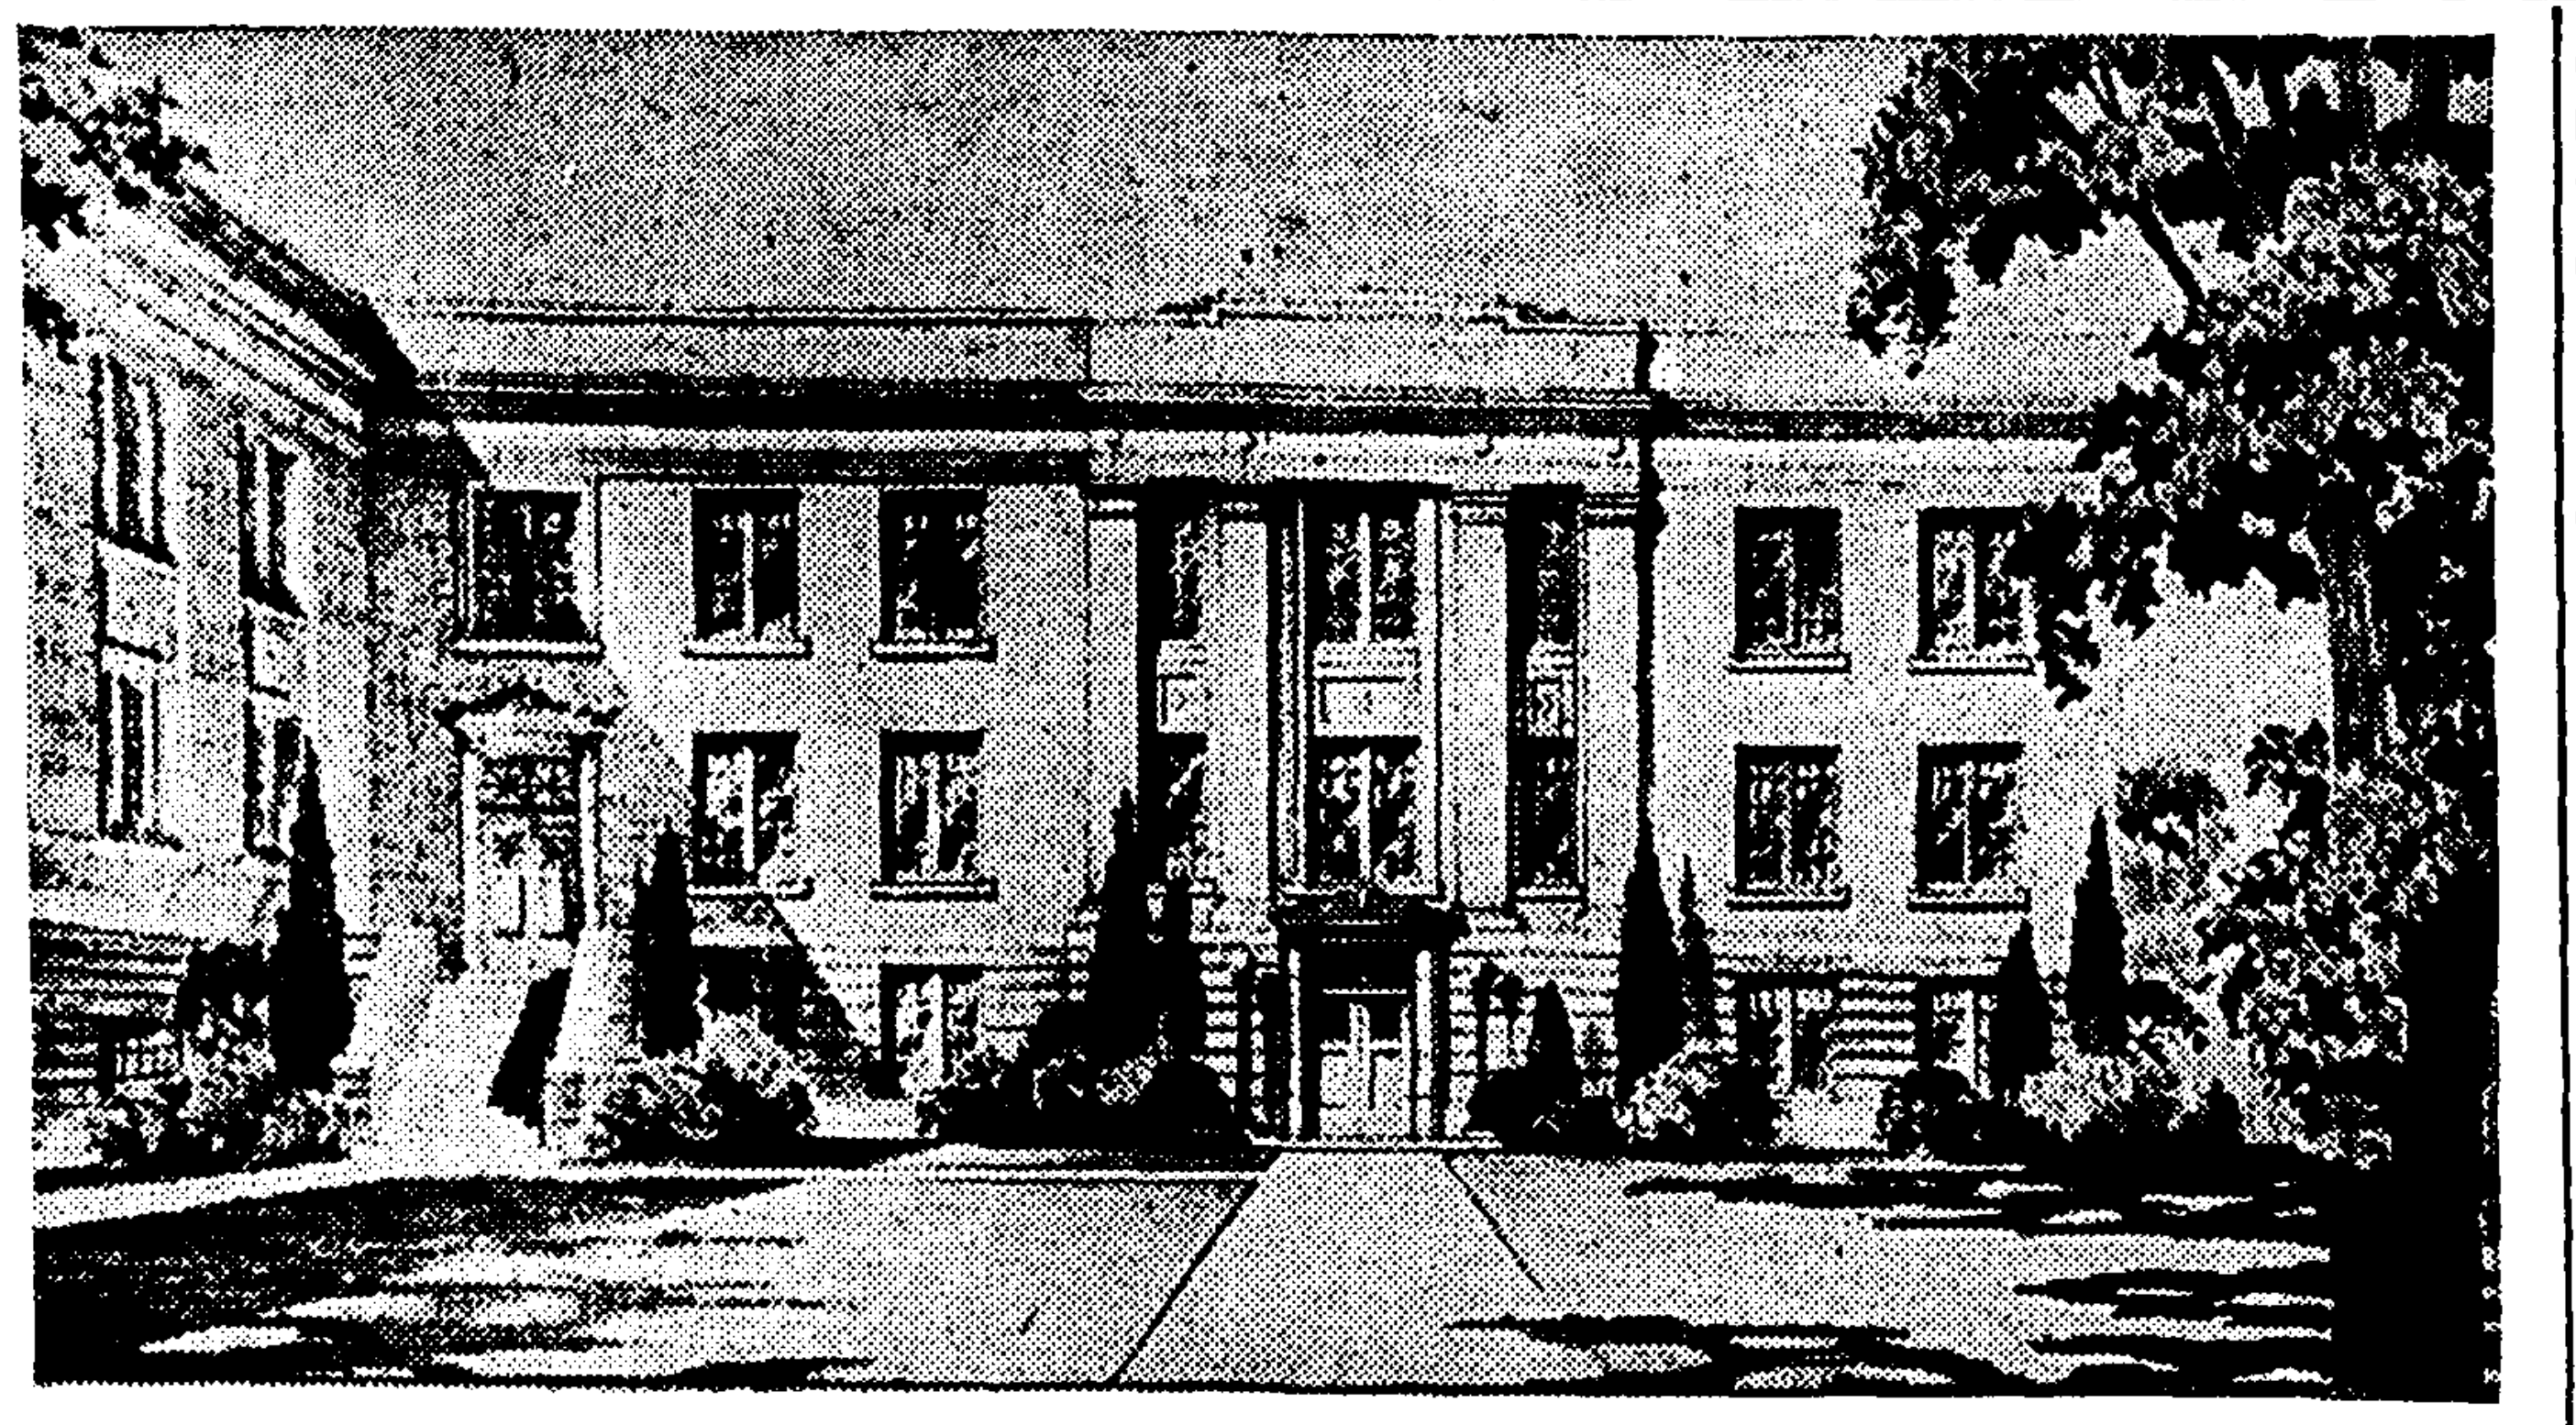
The resolution passed soliciting Judge Mays to announce for re-election praised his record on the bench, and said: "His judgments have, in the large, withstood the careful scrutiny of the appellate courts, and he, as all the predecessors on that bench before him have done, has upheld the dignity of the court and safeguarded the rights of our citizens."

The resolution asserted Mays had established himself "as an eminent judge and jurist in this part of the state—has endeared himself to those who have had occasion to attend his court in any capacity."

Loss to Court.

The document also said that the attorneys realized that in urging Judge Mays to permit his name to be entered as a candidate for the office he now holds, they are asking him to forego his desire and resolution to return to a lucrative law practice, and added:

"We feel that the dignity of the bench of the district court will suffer a great loss should he retire at this time, and that this loss will be felt by every citizen in the couny."



PROPOSED BAPTIST EDUCATIONAL BUILDING—The above is an architect's drawing of the proposed educational building for the First Baptist church here to be erected to care for the needs of the congregation. The addition will be an extension of the present main church building to the east across the old alley and to the site now occupied by the Pals class building. The congregation has already voted to advertise for bids for the construction of the educational building as soon as $50,000 is available, Dr. Jared I. Cartlidge, pastor, has revealed. The church building committee headed by Travis Fullwood, is expected to have definite plans to present the congregation in the immediate future.

Suit Against City Limits Extension Ready For Appeal

A 72-page transcript of the proceedings of the consolidated case of A. Hayes Bonner et al, and Charles Willmann et al, vs. City of Corsicana et al, recently tried in the Thirteenth Judicial District court here, Monday afternoon was delivered to the law firm of Tyson, Dawson and Dawson by J. C. Gaston, district clerk.

The transcript is to be filed with the Court of Civil Appeals, Waco, on appeal from the recent ruling of A. P. Mays, district judge, who found for the defendant, City of Corsicana. Tyson, Dawson and Dawson represent Bonner and others from the Zion's Rest area, and Doyle Pevehouse represents Willmann and others west of Corsicana and northwest of Corsicana. J. C. Jacobs, city attorney, represents the municipality.

The two cases were brought, attacking the incorporation of an area in excess of the old area by ordinances without elections either in the old city or in the area annexed. The hearing attracted considerable attention before Judge Mays.

Bonds for the appeal to the appellate court were recently filed in the district clerk's office for costs.
